

RCDC GENERAL MEETING
TOWN HALL, WASHINGTON, VA
November 10, 2018

AGENDA

0930: Social hour with refreshments

1000: Welcome and calls to order by the chair

Consistent items:

- Seek approval for minutes of last meeting. Done, including corrections to Sep minutes.
- Treasurer report. Balance on 10 Nov = $3,537. Election nite party cost $1,500, and we collected $1,350. Some unpaid bills remain, but less than $1,000.

Old Business

- The campaign is over, and we will be vacating the office at Flint Hill soon. Robert presented a certificate of appreciation to Dan and Janet Clark for their valuable assistancel, including use of the office and the debate nite party.
- Ron Goodman organized activity at the polls, tents, etc. Made things happen.
- Ross O'Donoghue and Hank Gorfein put up 30 4o 40 large signs.
- Judy DeSarno organized the election nite party at Headmaster's Pub.
- Numerous technology aids were used for the first time or more extensively in this campaign. This includes the VAN, the MiniVAN, Mobilize America and other Internet sites to mobilize volunteers.
- A major campaign issue will be expanding Medicaid and thus improving the health of thousands of Virginia citizens.

New Business

- Introductory talk by Laura GAlante, who is running for the 18th district. She advocated:
 - Engage with others in rooms where there's not a lot of blue.
 - Engage year round.
 - Intellectual property theft by Russia and China gives them a competitive edge.
 - Formal campaign will be made at end of Nov. Support a strong rural economy.
 - Part of the new economy in rural areas is solar installation.
 - Broadband needed in rural areas. Comparable to rural electrification.
- Roadside cleanup scheduled for 17 Nov. Meet at Library at 10:00
- December meeting is cancelled.

Adjourned about 11:30

